BRYAN PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Bryan Public Library extended its facilities to the entire county (excepting in Montpelier which had its own library) in 1935. From that date the Williams County Library Service has steadily grown until it now comprises seven sub-branches and numerous book stations. Edgerton, Edon, Pioneer, Stryker, Kunkle and West Unity and Alvordton. Eight collections of books which are frequently changed are in grocery stores over the country and nine are in rural schools. All branches and the Bryan library serve the adult public as well as children.

The above count of names in the directory includes a few on the outskirts of the city, outside of the city limits.

FEDERAL CENSUS 1940 — 5,404

The changes on the streets show that 42 per cent of the homes show a complete change of occupants, since the last issue of the directory.

It will be worth MONEY to you to use this information in your business.

Letters and Circulars are more valuable to the sender when addressed to street and number. The post office can give better service when street and numbers are placed on mail matter.

Revise your mailing lists and save money on postage and printed matter.

This directory will pay BIG dividends to the merchant who uses the information in the directory.
